Mengisi Profil Google Scholar

The image shows a screenshot of a Google Scholar search interface. At the top left is the Google logo. To its right is a search bar containing the text "author: \"Brama Kumbara\"". A blue search button with a magnifying glass icon is on the far right. Below the search bar, the word "Scholar" is displayed in red. To the right of "Scholar" is a pagination indicator "1 - 2 - 3", where the number "2" is highlighted in a grey circle. The main content area contains the text: "Find articles that you've written and add them to your profile. Later, you can edit or delete the articles in your profile or add more articles to your profile." Below this is a message: "Your search - author: \"Brama Kumbara\" did not match any article groups." At the bottom left, there is a link "Skip this step" in blue text. A yellow callout box with a black border points to this link and contains the text: "Klik 'Skip this step', jika tidak muncul daftar artikel".

Mengisi Profil Google Scholar

Step 1: Profile

Step 2: Articles

Step 3: Updates

- We'll use a statistical authorship model to identify new articles that you write. We may also update bibliographic information for articles in your profile or identify duplicate article entries, which could be merged or deleted. How would you like to handle these changes?

Automatically update the list of articles in my profile. (recommended)

Don't automatically update my profile. Send me email to review and confirm updates.

- You can also add and remove individual articles, update their bibliographic data, and merge duplicate records. Rest assured, our automatic updates will preserve your edits and will not override them.

- We'll collect and display citations to your articles from all of Google Scholar. The citations will update automatically.
